

Our History - A long tradition of iron and steel making

Our History - A long tradition of iron and steel making

2000-Now

Ovako is formed by the merger of Ovako Steel, Fundia and Imatra Steel 2005

Ovako launch a new steel grade Hybrid Steel
2017

Nippon Steel Sumitomo Metals acquires Ovako

Upgraded degassing facility in Imatra
2018

Ovako becomes a subsidiary of Sanyo Special Steel and a member of Nippon Steel Corporation group
2019

First full-scale hydrogen project launched
2021

Carbon Neutral Operations
2022

2017
Fossil free electricity at all Swedish production sites

2018
Verified Climate declarations published

Fossil free electricity at Imatra

2019
Verified Environmental Declarations published for all process flows

2020
World first successful trials heating steel with hydrogen and new degassing facility in Smedjebacken

2022
All oil in steel mills converted to propane/NG

2023
Heating of steel with hydrogen in Hofors

